

Saesteel – Salesclerk catering department

You are the face of the store! With your smooth and friendly service you provide customers with a pleasant shopping experience. As a sales employee you help and advise them in the search for a delicious meal.

By the way, you prepare those meals all by yourself: tasty salads, daily specials, sandwiches ... You package them with great care and present them in a beautiful way. The store also makes you look top-notch and you help with unloading and putting away deliveries. You also like to assist as a cashier. You like that variation in your work. You like to alternate between multiple tasks.

- You are customer-oriented and friendly.
- You are smiley, positive and a real team player.
- You are flexible and can work on Saturdays.
- You like to work independently and take initiative.
- You follow procedures carefully.
- You can easily move to surrounding branches in the area.
- No experience? No problem! It's your motivation that counts.
- An exciting and varied job at a growing family business of Belgian origin.
- A flexible job that you can combine well with your private life. You can come to us for both a full-time and part-time job.
- A varied job within a nice working atmosphere.
- Personal coaching and training opportunities.

<https://saesteel.com/nl/jobs/>